The Beautiful Time

I think Autumn is the most beautiful season because of the colors. Red, orange, copper and gold strike out against a painfully blue sky.

Soaking in the cool clear air, we drink in the fading glory, knowing the cold and dark Winter is coming. So, one last trip, one last walk, one last long gaze.

God is beautiful, and the works of God's hands reveal something of God's inner beauty. The beauty of nature reflects the glory of God.

Scientists have discovered the colors of Autumn were present all along, in the leaves of Spring and Summer. Evidently the chlorophyll (which reflects the color green) is so enthusiastic, it veils the other colors for a season or two. But as the longer and colder nights unrelent, trees draw their chlorophyll deep into its trunk for protection. It is then our earthly eyes begin to see these additional colors.

For Christians, hardship and peril often reveal our true colors. Our personal "Autumns" produce similar changes. While the enthusiasm of Spring may paint us perky green, a succession of cold, dark nights bring out other subtle and complex hues. Unseen by earthly eyes, these "colors" were being developed by God in Spring and Summer. As our true colors are slowly revealed, may we reflect the glory and beauty of God.

God says to Samuel, while choosing David to be king, “The LORD does not look at the things man looks at. Man looks at the outward appearance, but the LORD looks at the heart.” [I Samuel 16:7]. God sees our true colors, no matter the season. The opportunity of different seasons in life, allow us, by God's grace, to see and develop our true colors = our true character in Christ.

David writes, in Psalm 139:23-24, “Search me, O God, and know my heart; test me and know my anxious thoughts. See if there is any offensive way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.” Like David, we can ask God to show us our true colors, long before the testing of personal “Autumns” unveil them.

Like David, we can ask God to change anything within us which is not beautiful. In other words, God can infuse missing colors in our character. In doing so, God adds to our true inner beauty, which in due season, will be displayed as a blessing for all to behold.

Love in Christ, Pastor Dan
